Anastasia Cail-Greene Named Superintendent's Student of the Month for February 2019

The Savannah-Chatham County Public School System recognized Anastasia Cail-Greene at this month's board meeting as the Superintendent's Student of the month of February 2019. Our featured student attends Coastal Middle School and is in eighth grade.

Anastasia is described as "a student who is so motivated, caring and such a great help to teachers and others." While she is currently taking many honors classes, she stays for tutorial when needed and dedicates her time to her academics. She is REACH Scholar nominee, a past recipient of the President's Education Award, yearly Honor Roll student, and on the principal's Honor Roll. Additionally, she is a member of the Duke University Talent Identification Program and the National Junior Honor Society.

Anastasia volunteers with her school's wrestling team and Senior Citizens Inc. She has set realistic goals for high school, college and career that are attainable and meaningful to her. She says, "Having academic success allows me to strive to be the most excellent me I can be. It will allow me to do great things!"

We are proud to announce the Superintendent's Student of the Month for February 2019 is Anastasia Cail-Greene! Congratulations to our student, her family, and the faculty and staff of Coastal Middle School!
