Devin Francois Named Superintendent's Student of the Month for March 2019

The Savannah-Chatham County Public School System recognized Devin Francois at this month's board meeting as the Superintendent's Student of the month of March 2019. Our featured student attends Woodville Tompkins Technical & Career High School and is a senior.

Devin is described as a high achiever. He displays academic excellence in various courses and goes beyond expectations. Not only is a former member of the swim team at Woodville Tompkins, but he is the President of the school's Technology Student Association organization.

He is known for displaying leadership skills amongst his peers. Devin says he is always striving to be better than yesterday and is always finding ways to improve. After graduation, he plans to enroll in college.

We are proud to announce the Superintendent's Student of the Month for March 2019 is Devin Francois! Congratulations to our student, his family, and the faculty and staff of Woodville Tompkins Technical & Career High School!
