Liam Clark Named Superintendent's Student of the Month for November 2018

The Savannah-Chatham County Public School System recognized Liam Clark at this month's board meeting as the Superintendent's Student of the month of November. Our featured student attends Pooler Elementary School and is in fifth grade. As a child who did not speak until he was four years old with a severe hearing loss, he has overcome many obstacles.

He is an honor student who is dedicated to making the world a better place. He loves history and loves learning about the Founding Fathers. Liam has excelled in volunteering service hours to the school and participating in a Hurricane Drive the school held to help the North Carolina city of New Bern.

He wants to be an attorney advocating for human rights as a JAG Officer in the US Navy. His ultimate dream job is to become the President of the United States. Liam's favorite quote is "If you stand for nothing you will fall for everything" by Alexander Hamilton.

We are proud to announce the Superintendent's Student of the Month for November 2018 is Liam Clark! Congratulations to our student, his family, and the faculty and staff of Pooler Elementary School!
