SCCPSS ADVISORY:

Coastal Middle Assistant Principal Latashia Thomas has been named a winner of the Hal Beaver Georgia Outstanding Assistant Principal Award by the Georgia Association of Middle School Principals. The award is named in honor of Hal Beaver who was a long time elementary school principal in Gwinnet County and a former NAESP National Distinguished Principal. While working for the Georgia Association of Educational Leaders, Hal implemented the successful Georgia Aspiring Principals Program.

The Georgia Outstanding Assistant Principal Award is presented to assistant principals in Georgia who have demonstrated strong leadership in guiding his/her school as an effective middle school as defined by state and national standards. The applicant must have completed two consecutive years as an assistant principal of the same middle school.

Thomas was recognized at the Fall Conference of the Georgia Association of Middle School Principals held this week in Savannah.
