

Greenbriar Children's Center
3790 Hopkins Street Sav. Ga., 31405
912-234-3431

This center targets children ages infant to 21 and seeks to provide services which promote the healthy development of children and the strengthening of families. Project Care is a Runaway/Homeless youth program that assists youth (10-17) in need of temporary shelter, counseling, and family support .

Wesley Community Centers of Savannah, Inc.
1601 Drayton Street Sav. Ga., 31401
912-441-5711

This Family Advocacy Project works to assist all families in times of need through advocacy and referral including emergency utility and rental assistance, food assistance, health forums, community events, education classes, spiritual workshops, counseling, job support, and more.

Interfaith Hospitality
Network
912-790-9446

This program offers emergency services to families with children. The assistance includes meals and shelter provided for families in their churches or synagogues while case managers mobilize community services to alleviate the homeless situation.

Housing Authority of Savannah
555 West Bay Street
Savannah, Ga., 31405
912-235-5844

The Housing Authority of Savannah provides Public Housing to low-income families, senior citizens and the disabled. There are eight Chatham County Community Resource apartments. Some are specifically designed for the needs of family members with handicaps. Interested families must apply for public housing.

Section 8

The Section 8 program allows low-income families receive federal housing assistance.

COMMUNITY RESOURCES

SAFE Shelter
912-234-9999

This facility allows female survivors of domestic abuse (and their children) stay for up to three months. The abuse must be serious and intimate in nature (husband/wife, girlfriend/boyfriend, same-sex couples). The services they offer include: counseling, support groups, legal advocacy referral services, and preventive education.

Social Apostolate
502 E. Liberty Street
Savannah, Ga., 31404
912-233-1877

The Social Apostolate provides help to those in need of the Soup Kitchen, Clothes and Showers daily.

If you are in need of more or different community resources, please contact

Deanna Morgan-Hull

912-395-5900 Ext 711216

deanna.morgan-hull@sccpss.com

Hours of Operation: 8:00am-2:15pm

DeRenne Middle School

Located in Room #216

